About Nancy Rynes

Nancy is a leading voice for personalizing the wisdom of Near Death Experiences (NDEs), living a life of peaceful awareness, and developing our inspired creativity. Known for her fun, lighthearted, girl-next-door demeanor, Nancy teaches others how to live a more conscious, joyful, and spiritually-inspired life.

As a scientist and corporate trainer, for over two decades Nancy aligned herself with the skepticism prevalent in so much of the scientific community. She remained an atheist until a life-changing bicycling accident and near-death experience (NDE) opened her mind to a greater reality. Now, Nancy is an avid spiritual seeker as well as practitioner of compassion, kindness, contemplative prayer, and being the change we wish to see. Drawing on the transformational wisdom learned during her own NDE, she teaches others how to live a more peaceful, centered, aware, and self-actualized life.

Nancy's book Awakenings from the Light dives into these and other topics, giving the reader concrete examples of how to allow spiritual wisdom to transform our lives. She has been a featured speaker on the TODAY Show, at the IANDES Annual Conference, the "Shifting Your Reality" Conference, and with Eben Alexander at The Vail Symposium.

I invite you to join me so that we can connect, share insights, and delight together in this beautiful event called Life!
